A FORMS

As part of continuous internal assessment there is a trifold process of grading the student through assignments, seminars and tests to gauge their academic performance. Marks are also allotted for each course based on the attendance levels of the student. All of these are calculated on to an "A Form" which calculates the weighted grade point and grade of the student for each course.

FORM B

Form B is used to summarize the final internal marks and submit them to the university. After the internal assessments are completed and recorded in Form A, the consolidated marks are transferred to Form B. This form is then submitted to the university's examination branch to be included in the final grade calculation.
