Institution's Innovation Council at The Cochin College

1 Introduction

The Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India, has established the MoE's Innovation Cell (MIC) to foster a culture of innovation among Higher Education Institutions (HEIs). The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) at The Cochin College (TCC) is part of this initiative, aimed at nurturing young students to transform their ideas into prototypes during their formative years. The Cochin College, has successfully established an Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) in accordance with the guidelines set forth by the Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell, Government of India. The establishment of the IIC at The Cochin College has been formally recognized by the Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell on 31 March 2021. The certification process ensures that the college adheres to the prescribed norms and guidelines, fostering an environment of innovation and entrepreneurship within the institution.

7 Participation in Udyami Bazar

The Cochin College's Institution's Innovation Council (TCC-IIC) actively participated in the Udyami Bazar, an entrepreneurial market organized as part of the IIC regional meet held at the School of Engineering, Cochin University of Science and Technology on 16th January 2024. This event provided a platform for students to showcase their entrepreneurial initiatives and engage with a broader audience.

7.1 Key Highlights:

7.1.1 Product Showcase:

Students from the Zoology Department presented vermicompost, a product developed through sustainable practices. The vermicompost was made available for sale at the market, demonstrating the practical application of their academic learning and commitment to environmentally friendly practices.

7.1.2 Mentorship and Guidance:

Dr. Vineeth Kumar T.V., President of the IIC, and Dr. Paulbert Thomas, Start-up Activity Coordinator, represented The Cochin College at the event. They provided guidance and support to the participating students, helping them navigate the entrepreneurial landscape and encouraging them to pursue innovation-driven ventures.

7.1.3 Impact and Outcome:

The Udyami Bazar event served as a significant learning experience for the students, offering them exposure to the real-world market environment. The positive response from visitors at the event highlighted the potential of the students' products and reinforced the importance of entrepreneurial activities within the academic setting. The participation of The Cochin College in such regional events underscores the institution's commitment to fostering innovation and entrepreneurship among its students.

Govt. of India has established 'MoE's Innovation Cell (MIC)' to systematically foster the culture of Innovation among all Higher Education Institutions (HEIs).

The primary mandate of MIC is to encourage, inspire and nurture young students by supporting them to work with new ideas and transform them into prototypes while they are in formative years.

MIC has envisioned encouraging creation of 'Institution's Innovation Council (IICs) across selected HEIs. A network of IICs are established to promote innovation and entrepreneurship in the Institution through multitudinous modes leading to an innovation promotion ecosystem in the campuses.

MIC annually publishes calendar activities to be organised by IICs in four quarters (Q1-Q4). Additionally mandatory activities categorised as MIC driven activities. Self driven activities and day celebrations are to be organised by IICs. The reports of the activities are to be uploaded to the portal in a timely manner. MIC, after evaluation of the reports of all four quarters, will provide star ratings for the IICs.

8 Guppy Gold: Turning Vibrant Fish into Thriving Business Ventures

Guppy fish breeding and maintenance represent a unique entrepreneurial opportunity, combining the appeal of aquaculture with the potential for substantial income generation. Guppy fish, known for their vibrant colors and adaptability, are in high demand among aquarium enthusiasts worldwide. This venture not only requires minimal startup capital but also offers flexibility in terms of space and resources, making it an ideal option for aspiring entrepreneurs.

The process of guppy fish breeding involves understanding their habitat requirements, managing water quality, and ensuring optimal feeding practices. Entrepreneurs can leverage their knowledge of selective breeding techniques to create unique and highly sought-after guppy strains, which can be marketed to pet stores, individual hobbyists, and online marketplaces.

Moreover, this entrepreneurial initiative aligns with sustainable practices, as guppy fish breeding can be carried out in controlled environments that minimize environmental impact. The potential for scaling the business by diversifying into related areas, such as the sale of aquarium accessories and fish food, further enhances its viability as a long-term venture.

This program, organized by the Department of Zoology at The Cochin College, offers students a hands-on experience in entrepreneurship. With a significant proportion of female students in the college, activities like these are instrumental in encouraging them to consider entrepreneurship as a viable career path in their future years. By engaging in this initiative, students gain practical skills and insights that can empower them to explore innovative business opportunities and become self-reliant entrepreneurs.

9 Aquarium Mastery: Dive into a Thriving Business with Expert Management

Aquarium management presents an innovative entrepreneurial path that merges creativity with environmental stewardship. As the popularity of aquariums grows among enthusiasts and businesses alike, there is a rising demand for professionals who can design, install, and maintain captivating aquatic environments. This field not only offers a fulfilling and creative outlet but also holds the promise of substantial financial rewards.

Managing an aquarium involves more than just caring for fish. It requires a deep understanding of aquatic ecosystems, water chemistry, and the aesthetics of aquascaping. Entrepreneurs can tap into diverse markets, offering services to homes, offices, hotels, and public spaces that seek to enhance their environments with professionally managed aquariums. This program, spearheaded by the Department of Zoology at The Cochin College, gives students a unique opportunity to gain practical experience in a rapidly growing industry. The hands-on training provided by this initiative equips students with the skills necessary to excel in aquarium management, positioning them to take advantage of the increasing demand in this sector.

10 Appreciation for Activities

TCC-IIC has been recognized for its continuous efforts in fostering a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship through its Institution Innovation Council (IIC). The college received Letters of Appreciation from the Ministry of Education for the contributions of the institution to developing an innovation and entrepreneurship culture on campus. The letter also acknowledged the college's support in helping other IIC institutions within the network.
