Motto: Lead Kindly Light

The motto "Lead Kindly Light" is a prayer for guidance in times of darkness and uncertainty. Originating from the hymn written by John Henry Newman, it symbolizes the aspiration for moral and spiritual enlightenment. It reflects the College's dedication to being a beacon of wisdom, virtue, and integrity, guiding its students through the challenges of life with compassion and understanding. The phrase also encapsulates the institution's commitment to fostering an environment where knowledge leads not only to personal success but also to the greater good of society. As students embark on their educational journey, the light of knowledge, integrity, and wisdom leads them towards a brighter and more meaningful future.

3 Parent Teacher Association

The Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) at The Cochin College plays a crucial and supportive role in various aspects of the institution's functioning, particularly in student welfare, academic enhancement, and extracurricular activities. The PTA's active involvement is evident in its contributions to both academic and non-academic areas, ensuring a holistic educational experience for students.

One of the key areas where the PTA extends its support is the conduct of internal examinations. By collaborating with the faculty and administration, the PTA helps ensure that these examinations are conducted smoothly, with adequate resources and proper planning. This support is crucial in maintaining the academic rigor of the institution and helps assess students' learning progress effectively.

In addition to supporting academic assessments, the PTA also contributes to enhancing academic infrastructure. This involves providing financial assistance and resources for upgrading classrooms, laboratories, and libraries, ensuring that students have access to modern facilities that enhance the learning experience. By improving the infrastructure, the PTA ensures that students are equipped with the necessary tools for academic success.

The PTA is also deeply involved in supporting extracurricular activities, particularly during events like the university youth festivals. Their involvement includes logistical and financial support, enabling students to participate and excel in cultural, literary, and artistic competitions. This not only boosts student morale but also promotes the development of well-rounded individuals who can excel both academically and creatively.

7 Faculty Development Programmes attended by Teaching Faculty during 2019-20

During the academic year 2019-2020, faculty members of The Cochin College actively participated in various Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), Refresher Courses, and Online Training sessions aimed at enhancing their pedagogical skills, knowledge, and overall academic growth. These initiatives, supported by the UGC and other educational bodies, provided valuable opportunities for the teaching and non-teaching staff to stay updated with modern educational practices and developments in their respective fields.

Several faculty members completed UGC-sponsored Refresher Courses and programs focusing on higher education. These courses were instrumental in improving their teaching methodologies, ensuring they remain updated with the latest developments in education. Faculty members such as Liance Mathew, Dominic T Joseph, and Janu V Kumar participated in specialized refresher courses that helped them improve their expertise in teaching and adapt to the evolving needs of higher education.

Programs related to Disaster Management and Orientation Programs were also attended by faculty such as Dr. Nayana Jose C and Dr. Haripriya B.B, ensuring that the college is equipped with the knowledge and skills required to handle unforeseen challenges, both academically and administratively.

Several faculty members participated in specialized online courses such as SWAYAM ARPIT, focusing on Financial Markets and Emerging Business Models. Dr. Kochuthresia Jose, Rekha P G, and Dr. Lakshmisree R engaged in this course, enhancing their understanding of financial systems and innovative business models, which can be incorporated into their teaching practices.

The importance of digital literacy and online learning was recognized as many faculty members, including Dr. Smitha N.R, Dr. Manju V Subramanian, and Dr. Rajani B Bhat, undertook training in Online Learning and Content Development through MOOCs. These courses focused on managing online classes and co-creating digital learning content, which was especially crucial during the COVID-19 pandemic when education had to be swiftly adapted to virtual platforms.

Additionally, non-teaching staff like Jeena Jayan also enhanced their skills by attending an Online FDP on Skills for Librarianship, ensuring that the institution's support staff are well-equipped with the latest tools and techniques to manage digital and physical resources effectively.

Furthermore, courses focusing on Emotional Intelligence and Soft Skills were attended by faculty members such as Dr. Annietta Philip K, Dr. Biju P Thampi, and Dr. Mini P Mathai. These programs were essential in fostering better communication, student engagement, and self-awareness among faculty members, thereby improving the overall teaching and learning environment

8 Report on Extension Activities Conducted by The Cochin College (2019-2020)

Throughout the academic year 2019-2020, The Cochin College, under the leadership of the NSS, Department of Zoology, and other student bodies, actively organized and participated in a wide range of programs focusing on environmental awareness, social responsibility, health care, and community service. These activities fostered a sense of civic duty and personal development among students, aligning with the college's mission to cultivate holistic education.

The year began with the Environment Day Celebration on 5 June 2019, followed by Yoga Day on 21 June 2019, both organized by the NSS to promote physical well-being and environmental consciousness. Another key event was the observance of the International Day for Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking on 26 June 2019, raising awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse.

As part of the environmental sustainability initiatives, the college celebrated Vanamahotsav Day on 1 July 2019, encouraging students to plant trees and contribute to ecological conservation. The World Social Media Day was observed on 8 July 2019, emphasizing the responsible use of digital platforms.

On 15 August 2019, the Independence Day celebrations were marked with great enthusiasm, followed by Flood Relief Activities on 16 August 2019, where NSS volunteers extended their support to the flood-affected regions. Teachers' Day was celebrated on 5 September 2019, honoring the contributions of faculty members to the institution.

The Blood Donation Camp on 26 September 2019 and the Railway Swachhata Programme on 4 November 2019 demonstrated the college's commitment to public health and cleanliness. A notable health initiative was the establishment of the Pain and Palliative Care Unit on 28 November 2019, reflecting the NSS's dedication to serving those in need.

To raise awareness about local tourism, a program was organized on 30 November 2019 focusing on the Tourism Development in Chellanam. Additionally, the Beach Cleaning Drive at Fort Kochi Beach on 10 December 2019 highlighted the institution's environmental stewardship.

The college continued its mission of health and social awareness with the Palliative Care Day on 5 January 2020 and a Drug Awareness Programme on 7 February 2020, both focusing on critical social issues. The Coronavirus Awareness Programme on 11 February 2020 educated students on the early measures for COVID-19 prevention. This was followed by a Pre-Orientation Camp on 13 February 2020 to prepare new NSS volunteers for their future roles.

The Department of Zoology organized significant academic initiatives, including the BIOMAG program and the CUBE Student Scientist Program in December 2020, fostering research and innovation among students. The department also hosted a Workshop on Environment and Sustainable Development Through Healthy Practices from 7-10 January 2020, in collaboration with the Nature Club, to promote sustainable living. Field trips such as the Institute Visits to MTCC and CSIR-IMTECH on 4 March 2020 provided students with hands-on scientific exposure.

The academic year 2019-2020 was a significant period for The Cochin College, marked by both achievements and challenges. Despite the global disruptions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic in the latter part of the year, the college demonstrated resilience and adaptability in maintaining the quality of education, supporting student growth, and ensuring the continuity of academic activities.

The institution made great strides in promoting academic excellence, community engagement, and environmental sustainability through various initiatives organized by the NSS, Department of Zoology, and other student bodies. Faculty development was prioritized, with staff participating in numerous Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) and training sessions, equipping them to navigate the new educational landscape brought about by the pandemic.

The successful completion of these activities reflects the dedication of the faculty, students, and administrative staff in overcoming challenges and embracing new opportunities. As we look ahead, The Cochin College remains committed to fostering holistic development, innovation, and excellence, ensuring that the institution continues to thrive in the face of changing circumstances.

In conclusion, the academic year 2019-2020 has laid a strong foundation for future growth, and the college looks forward to continuing its mission of providing quality education and meaningful contributions to society.
